COLUMBIA, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY July 28 1920.

NUMBER 40

OIL NEWS.

[BY E. T. KEMPER.]

The J. E. Carnahan Oil Co.'s well at Zion Church is now down some thing over 700 feet, a favorable formation has been encountered, and drilling will be continued to a sufficient depth to thoroughly test the location. As soon as this well is completed the rig will be moved to the Henry Ingram farm about one mile from town on the Russell Springs road, where the next well will be drilled without delay.

Representatives of the Associated Producers Association have been spending considerable time here lately for the purpose of getting in close touch with local development and securing all the possible information obtainable at first hand. They have given out very little information as to how they are pleased and what their intentions are, but I have every reason to believe they are taking more than passing interest in what is going on here in oil circles, and I predict that they will spend a goodly sum of money in this territory.

Mr. Elmo Pearce, the well-known operator of Blackwell, Okla., who was here sometime since temporarily, advises that he is returning here at once to begin operations in this section, and he also expects to bring his family and locate in Columbia while he is developing this territory.

The office equipment of the Palmer Oil & Gas Company has arrived from Cleveland, and they are now nicely domiciled in the Page Building, on Campbellsburg street, where they have taken a lease, paying rentals a half year in advance. Mr. Geo. A. Palmer, the president of the Company, has been called to Cleveland on important business matters for a few days, and while away he will endeavor to hurry forward the shipment of their drilling rig from West Virginia. The Palmer people are the kind we are glad to see locating in our midst, for they are ready and willing to do things. They know the oil business thoroughly, and in addition to this they are reliable, and they express faith in this section proving to be a great field.

Mr. Frank Sweet, in charge of the Beacon Oil Syndicates drilling operations at Greelsboro, was in town the latter part of the week for the purpose of getting certain supplies they have been very much in need of, that have been "sidetracked" here for several days past, and he talked very encouragingly of general prospects and conditions in that section. The Beacon people have the drilling contracts for the McMead Oil Company, and they are doing all in their power to rush the development work as much as possible. Mr. Sweet while here gave a very favorable report of the McMead Company wells on the Campbell Bros farm.

While in Lebanon the latter part of the week, during a conversation with Mr. C. S. Harris, a former well-known citizen of Columbia, now located at West Point, Miss., he informed me that they are on the verge of an oil boom in his locality, and that deep test drilling is about to be started within four or five miles of West Point.

Dr. J. W. Goggin, vice-president and general manager of the Beacon Oil Syndicate, Chicago, accompanied by parties from Louisville and Chicago, was here Sunday night and left early Monday for the Greelsboro field. The Beacon people own a good block of the stock of the McMead Oil Company, and they are vitally interested in the development of the Company's holdings. Dr. Goggin is a "live wire" in the oil business and he believes in doing things.

The Lumber Business.

The logging business in Adair county is not dead by any means. Elsie Young keeps a number of teams busy, hauling to his mill, and he has quite a number of hands felling trees in the woods. Guy Nell, who purchased a lot of timber land has been busy with three teams for the past two months hauling logs to the mills. N. M. Tutt has done a lot of sawing at his mill, in the Flat Woods, and other mills are busy in the county. Trees that were not merchantable twenty years ago are now sawed into first-class lumber. Some people may think that timber is getting scarce in Adair, but mill men do not think so, as a new mill starts every few weeks. Messrs. Myers & Barger will be ready to start a saw in a short time. Some of this lumber should be put into dwellings here in Columbia.

Public Speaking.

Private Geo. T. Davis, of Casey Co., candidate for Democratic nomination for Congress in the 8th Congressional District, will address the voters of Adair county at the following times and places:

Gradyville July 26, 10:30,
Milltown, July 26th, 1:30,
Cane Valley, July 26, 7:30,
Breeding, July 27, 10:30,
Fairplay, July 27, 1:30,
Glensfork, July 27, 7:30,
Casey Creek, July 28, 10:30,
Pellyton, July 28, 1:30
Absher, July 28, 7:30.
Ladies especially invited.

There will be some preaching in Columbia during the month of September. A series of meetings will start at the Methodist church the 5th of the month and will continue until the 19th. Immediately following this meeting the heretofore announced meeting at the Baptist church will begin and continue through the month. We predict that these religious gatherings will draw many hearers. There are many subjects who need reformation, who live in the boundaries of these churches, and good results ought to follow the meetings.

Dr. J. N. Murrell.

Prof. Leo Wright, of Louisville, who is a teacher of band music, and who is at the head of a Band School in Louisville, reached here with ten or more men who make up a band. Monday afternoon they will give a number of concerts while in Columbia, and will play upon the public square Thursday night and Saturday night. People living out of town and want to hear up-to-date music should be in Columbia on these nights.

Arm Broken.

Sam Taylor, sixteen years old son of Dr. S. A. Taylor, Joppa, met with a serious accident last Saturday morning week. He was plowing with a double shovel when the plow struck a ledge of rock. The plow jumped and the jar broke his right arm. After the accident young Taylor continued to plow and did not know his arm was broken until he reached the end of the row.

Town Taxes.

Pay your town taxes to A. D. Patterson. He is at Hutchison & Patterson's Store. 40-2c.

Fire alarm was sent out from Parson's blacksmith shop last Thursday morning. In two minutes after the alarm was sounded fifty or sixty men reached the scene, ready for action. The fire was soon extinguished and no damage done.

"I Would Not Live Alway."

A noted character of this town and county gave up the realities of this life last Saturday morning and passed beyond the veil—"Aunt Sally" Walker, as she was familiarly called.

She was born and reared near Milltown, this county, and for the past forty-five years, with the exception of a few months, she resided in Columbia.

Her first husband, Geo. M. Caldwell, died many years ago, and some years after his death she was married to Mr. W. L. Walker, who was a well-known citizen of the county. He died about sixteen years or more ago.

We have not the date of the deceased birth, but the county records show that she was married to her first husband in 1846. Placing her at 18 when she married she was 92 years old when death came.

She was a devout member of the Christian Church and was a very liberal giving on all the ordinances of the organization. She also helped young men who were preparing for the ministry, and was a constant donor to the needs of the local church building, and she will be greatly missed by the entire congregation, and the people of Columbia generally.

The end came at the Jeffries' Hotel where she had boarded for a number of years, and where her friends tenderly administered to her every want. She was perfectly resigned to the inevitable, and told her friends that she did not want to live longer.

The funeral was preached at the Christian Church Sunday afternoon by her pastor, Eld. Z. T. Williams, who paid high tribute to her life and character. The interment was in the city cemetery. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

There is no doubt but she was ready for her Master's call and that she is now reaping the joys that has come to her for her well spent earthly life.

She leaves one nephew, A. J. Botts, who lives at Rogers, Ark., and a few other relatives here and elsewhere.

Wanted.

A white girl to work in a family. Will pay good wages. Write or call Mrs. H. W. Depp, Columbia, Ky.

Now Is The Time.

Summer is a good time to look around town and see what we need in the way of improvements—what can be done to better the condition of the town and its people.

We don't need a committee of three or four for this purpose. It should be a committee of the whole, with everybody on it, and each member should start with his own property. Are you ready?

Good second-hand organ for sale. See Mrs. Geo. E. Wilson.

There is an abundance of all kinds of vegetables in Columbia. The gardens throughout the town are more productive than many years in the past. Irish potatoes are unusually good, and there are beans to spare by the bushel. The plum crop has been very satisfactory and the blackberry crop is large and apples and peaches are plentiful.

Olio B. Estes, of Metcalfe county, has bought Mr. C. H. Yates' farm, at Gradyville, containing about 80 acres, for $4,500. Possession will be given this fall. This is a valuable farm and sold worth the money. We are informed that Mr. Yates and his daughter, Mrs. Ella Robertson, will likely go to Boone county to live.

Ford Cars.

The Ford Motor Co., has given us assurance that after Aug. 1st, our monthly allotment of Ford Cars will be substantially increased, therefore, it should place us in a much better position to make delivery on all orders. We urge all who are contemplating buying Ford Cars to give us their order at once, or come in and talk to us about it. First come will be first served, of course, and we feel confident that there will be very little delay in your receiving your car. Do not delay, come in and talk the matter over with us.

Dr. J. N. Page sold his residence on Greensburg street, last Wednesday, to Mr. Sam Wilson, of Greensburg, for $3,300. This sale was made through Cravens & Neat, real estate agents. Mr. Wilson will remove to Columbia, and will engage in the mining business with Myers & Barger. He is an experienced miner, and is said to be a good one. Mr. Wilson is a son-in-law of Mr. C. C. Stephens, and is a fine citizen, the kind Columbia is always ready to welcome.

Mr. Alvin Loy, who visited at Georgetown, Ind., last week, reports that he found the Adair county colony, in that locality, doing well and perfectly satisfied. He said R. E. Tandy and Asa Loy had fine wheat crops and that corn looked prosperous. He met D. M. Moore and found him in the real estate business and was keeping his end up all right.

The attention of the farmers is called to the "ad" of Barger Bros.

Public Sale.

On Saturday, August 14th, beginning at 10 a. m., I will offer for sale, at my residence, all my household goods.

All parties owing me drug accounts will please settle at once, as I am preparing to leave the county. 40-2c

Dr. J. N. Page.

Mr. Guy Nell has had his lot back of his barn cleaned of all rubbish and obnoxious growth, and at this time it is cleaner than the public square. If the spirit of cleanliness would strike other owners of back lots, the sanitary condition of Columbia would be perfect.

Mr. Otis Rose, who is a brother of Mr. John Rose, who is employed at the Bank of Columbia, met with a serious accident one day last week. He was riding a young horse that became scared and threw him. His right elbow was badly crushed.

Nine days from the date of this publication the Congressional primary will be pulled off. Let every Democrat make up his mind to vote. There will not be a Republican primary, Hon. King Swope being the only aspirant, and he has been declared the nominee.

A few days ago, just as we were leaving the court-house, several farmers were sitting about the steps, and as we passed one of them said, "This common school law and the automobiles are going to bankrupt the county." The English sparrow that was sitting on the cornice, just above the man, flew away.

Bible Institute at Baptist Church.

The people of Columbia are invited to come and get the benefit of the feast of fat things that the program of the Bible Institute offers. The personnel of teachers and speakers alone is sufficient to guarantee that it will be worth while to attend.

The subjects that will be discussed are vital to all of God's people.

The speakers are men who have had great success as pastors and leaders, and hence their addresses will be worth a great deal to all who attend.

Among them will be Rev. L. C. Kelly, who wrought such a wonderful work at Campbellsburg and all over this section. He is now located at Pineville, where he is accomplishing great things. Dr. J. E. Martin, pastor at Jellico, Tenn., who has built up such a wonderful Church at that place during the past few years is also scheduled to speak. He is one of the greatest organizers and one of the most efficient pastors. From the city of Louisville come two, Rev. C. E. Stevens and Mr. Geo. E. Hays. The former is pastor of the Clifton Baptist Church where he is leading his people in a great way. The latter is a business man and president of a big House. He is the teacher of the one of the largest Bible classes for men in the State. Besides his many activities as a worker he is also one of the greatest givers that Kentucky has on the 75 million Campaign.

Of quite a different type yet filling a useful place in the Lord's Vineyard is Rev. Lewis Lytle. He is a mountaineer preacher and has a stirring message about his work up in the Mountains, where the moon shines 'day and night' and where 'Hip pockets are the thickest, pistol hands the slickest and the cylinder turns the quickest.' The aim of the Institute is to give people a Vision of their task as Christians, and to get them to give Christ a larger place in their lives.

There will be three services a day so mark your calendar, Aug. 10-15, and set that time aside to come and take it all in.

The country readers who see this are asked to consider it as a special invitation to themselves. The printed programs will be out in a few days.

Leslie J. B. Smith, Pastor.

A Party.

Miss Cora Salmon gave a lawn Party at her home Saturday evening, in honor of her cousins Misses Phoebe and Helen Wilmore, of Bogard, Mo. About forty guests were present. The evening was delightfully spent, and at a late hour the guests departed, hoping to meet Phoebe and Helen again in the near future, and declaring Miss Salmon to be an excellent entertainer.

The attention of the municipal board of this town is called to the filthy condition of the cemetery. Obnoxious growth covers the lot and it should be mowed. It is the duty of the town board to do this work, and besides the living should see that the graves of departed loved ones are kept clean. Let the board, at its next meeting, make an order for this work.

Robert Arnold, who lives in the property purchased of H. C. Feece, lost his barn and a lot of hay Monday morning, by fire. The alarm was sounded about 8 o'clock. The building was too far gone when help reached the scene. Origin unknown.

A mechanic said to us the other day, "I can not see any difference in the cost of living now than before the war. Before the war labor was cheap and also goods. Now everything you buy is high, and so is wages." "All a same like melican man."

There will be a special examination of teachers in Adair county on the first Friday and Saturday in August, 6th and 7th. This examination will take place throughout the State on account of the shortage of teachers.

Ice cream supper at Rocky Hill school house next Friday night. It is for the Kentucky Orphans Home. All are invited.

Eld. Z. T. Williams delivered a very comforting discourse at the Presbyterian church last Sunday forenoon. A large audience heard him.

Mr. Frank Judd, while plowing, a few days ago, got two of his ribs broken by the plow jumping, the handle striking him in the side. He is recovering.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Lindsey-Wilson school. The catalogs will be ready for distribution the last of this week.

Mr. Geo. Colvin, State School Superintendent, has announced that the school per capita for this year will be $6 10, the same as last year.

The expenses of making the band music which will be rendered this week, have already been paid by the business men of Columbia.

We learn from Dr. F. H. Winfrey, Truant officer, that the schools in the county have opened with flattering prospects. The children who are not sick are all in school this year.

Come in and hear the band concerts this week.

Adair County News;
Columbia Ky.,

As we receive the News on Saturday and are always glad to get it, it always seems like a letter from home.

The fourth was passed off very nicely here with a lot of celebrations.

Mr. Amos Coomer of Gainesville Tex., landed here the fourth inst. and said there was a good crop in Texas this time but it is late. He said that the wheat crop is good.

The Adair boys keep coming out and most of them like but some will wonder back.

Illinois is a very good state if they would leave out the mosquitoes, believe me they shore hurt when they get that two inch bill through your clothes. Here is the way a man recite the twenty-third Psalm, when called on in Milford Ill.

My wife is my boss, I shall not deny. She restoreth my pocketbook after she has spent all its contents on hobble skirts and theatre tickets, and she leadeth me up the main aisle of church for her new hat's sake. Yea though I walk more than half of the night through dark rooms with a crying baby, I will get no rest for she is behind me, her broomstick and her hat pin, they do everything but comfort me.

She prepareth a cold snack for me, then maketh a bee-line for an aid supper. She anointh my head with the rolling pin occasionally. My arms runneth over with bundles before she is half done with her shopping.

Surely her dressmaker and millinery bills shall follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell forever in the house of my wife's amen.

I sure enjoyed reading Mr. I. Aiken's letter in the News and hope he will give us another one like that one.

Will close by saying wishing the News and its many readers success.

Yours Truly,
Elbert Wooten.

Democratic Stand Liked.

The American Federat noiof

Labor, by Samuel Gompers and others authorized to speak for it submits to the American people its analyses of the Republican and Democratic platforms. Concluding, it says in summarizing, It is but fair to say that the Democratic platform marks a measure of progress not found in the platform of the Republican party in relation to labor proposals.

"The planks written into the the Democratic platform more nearly approximate the desired declarations of human rights than do the planks found in the Republican platform.

"Labor in America is not partisan to any political party. It is partisan to principles, the principles of justice and freedom. It undertakes neither to dictate nor control the choice of the workers or the citizenship generally for which party or candidates they should vote. but it would be a palpable dereliction of duty did we fail to place the facts before the voters of our country upon the records of both parties and their respective candidates for public office.

FARMER-LABOR PARTY LAUNCHED

CHICAGO, July 12.—The Farmer Labor party, born of a fusion of numerous political groups, today has a platform and has its new candidates in the field for the coming election. Its work was completed at 4 o'clock this morning, when its convention, after an all-day and night session, chose Parley Parker Christensen, Salt Lake City attorney, and Max S. Hayes, Cleveland labor leader, as its Presidential and Vice Presidential nominee, respectively.

But the strength of the new government remains to be seen. The first test came today when a group of dissatisfied delegates, formerly allied with the Committee of Forty-eight, met and considered placing their own ticket in the field under the Forty-eight, banner.

Not all of the Forty-eight delegates withdrew from the fusion convention last night, when some 100 or more returned to their own convention. Those who remained were rewarded by seeing Christensen, the chairman of their convention, selected to lead the fusion party, while the labor leaders contented themselves with the selection of their national chairman, Hayes, to second place.

The new party's Presidential nominee is a native of the West. He was born at Weston, Idaho, forty-nine years ago. From early life on a farm, Christensen, the eldest of five children, plugged away at an education until he graduated in law at Cornell University. He since has spent most of his time in Salt Lake City.

Prior to 1912 Christensen was ranked as a "Dolliver," Republican, but allied himself with the Bull Moose in that year. The death of that party set him adrift, and, he said, he "sidled into the stall and voted for Wilson in 1916."

mean to defend, aye, we mean to sustain the rights of this nation and our citizens alike, everywhere under the shining sun. Yet there is the concord of amity and sympathy and fraternity in every resolution. There is a genuine aspiration in every American breast for a tranquil friendship with all the world.

One may readily sense the conscience of our America. I am sure I understand the purpose of the dominant group of the senate. We were not seeking to defeat a world aspiration, we were resolved to safeguard America. We were resolved then, even as we are today, and will be tomorrow, to preserve this free and independent republic.

In the call of the conscience of America is peace, peace that closes the gaping wound of world war, and silences the impassioned voices of international envy and distrust. Heeding this call and knowing as I do the disposition of the Congress, I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican Congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign.

It is better to be the free and disinterested agent of international justice and advancing civilization, with the covenant of conscience, than be shackled by a written compact which surrenders our freedom of action and gives to a military alliance the right to proclaim America's duty to the world. No surrender of rights to a world council or its military alliance, no assumed mandatory however appealing, ever shall summon the sons of this republic to war. Their supreme sacrifice shall only be asked for America and its call of honor. There is a sanctity in that right we will not delegate.

Leaving America Independent.

Disposed as we are, the way is very simple. Let the failure attending assumption, obstinacy, impracticability and delay be recognized, and let us find the big, practical, unselfish way to do our part, neither covetous because of ambition nor hesitant through fear, but ready to serve ourselves, humanity and God. With a senate advising as the constitution contemplates, I would hopefully approach the nations of Europe and of the earth, proposing that understanding which makes us a willing participant in the consecration of nations to a new relationship, to commit the moral forces of the world, America included, to peace and international justice, still leaving America free, independent and self-reliant, but offering friendship to all the world.

It is folly to close our eyes to outstanding facts. Humanity is restive, much of the world is in revolution, the agents of discord and destruction have wrought their tragedy in pathetic Russia, have lighted their torches among other peoples, and hope to see America as a part of the great Red conflagration. Ours is the temple of liberty under the law, and it is ours to call the Sons of Opportunity to its defense. America must not only save herself, but ours must be the appealing voice to sober the world.

It must be understood that toll alone makes for accomplishment and advancement, and righteous possession is the reward of toil, and its incentive. There is no progress except in the stimulus of competition.

The chief trouble today is that the world war wrought the destruction of healthful competition, left our storehouses empty, and there is a minimum production when our need is maximum. Maximums, not minimums, is the call of America. It isn't a new story, because war never fails to leave depleted storehouses and always impairs the efficiency of production. War also establishes its higher standards for wages, and they abide. I wish the higher wage to abide, on one explicit condition—that the wage-earner will give full return for the wage received.

Production, More Production.

I want, somehow, to appeal to the sons and daughters of the republic, to every producer, to join hand and brain in production, more production, honest production, patriotic production, because patriotic production is no less a defense of our best civilization than that of armed force. Profiteering is a crime of commission, under-production is a crime of omission. We must work our most and best, else the destructive reaction will come.

The menacing tendency of the present day is not chargeable wholly to the unsettled and fevered conditions caused by the war. The manifest weakness in popular government lies in the temptation to appeal to group citizenship for political advantage.

It would be the blindness of folly to ignore the activities in our own country which are aimed to destroy our economic system, and to commit us to the colossal tragedy which has destroyed all freedom and made Russia impotent. This movement is not to be halted in throttled liberties. We must not abridge the freedom of speech, the freedom of press, or the freedom of assembly, because there is no outside repression. These liberties are as sacred as the freedom of religious belief, as inviolable as the rights of life and the pursuit of happiness. We do hold to the right to crush sedition, to stifle a menacing contempt for law, to stamp out a peril to the safety of the republic or its people, when emergency calls, because security and the majesty of the law are the first essentials of liberty. He who threatens destruction of the government by force or flaunts his contempt for lawful authority, ceases to be a loyal citizen and forfeits his rights to the freedom of the republic.

No party is indifferent to the welfare of the wage-earner. To us his good fortune is of deepest concern, and we seek to make that good fortune permanent. We do not oppose but approve collective bargaining, because that is an outstanding right, but we are unalterably insistent that its exercise must not destroy the equally sacred right of the individual, in his necessary pursuit of livelihood. Any American has the right to quit his employment, so has every American the right to seek employment. The group must not endanger the individual, and we must discourage groups preying upon one another, and none shall be allowed to forget that the government's obligations are alike to all the people.

No Strike Against Government.

We are so confident that much of the present-day insufficiency and inefficiency of transportation are due to the withering hand of government operation that we emphasize anew our opposition to government ownership, we want to expedite the reparation and make sure the mistake is not repeated.

A state of inadequate transportation facilities, mainly chargeable to the failure of governmental experiment, is losing millions to agriculture. It is hindering industry, it is menacing the American people with a fuel shortage little less than a peril. It emphasizes the present-day problem and suggests that spirit of encouragement and assistance which commits all America to relieve such an emergency.

Gross expansion of currency and credit have depreciated the dollar just as expansion and inflation have discredited the coins of the world. We inflated in haste, we must deflate in deliberation. We debased the dollar in reckless finance, we must restore in honesty.

In all sincerity we promise the prevention of unreasonable profits, we challenge profiteering with all the moral force and the legal powers of government and people, but it is fair, aye, it is timely, to give reminder that law is not the sole corrective of our economic ills.

Drive Against Extravagance.

Let us call to all the people for thrift and economy, for denial and sacrifice if need be, for a nation-wide drive against extravagance and luxury, to a recommitment to simplicity of living, to that prudent and normal plan of life which is the health of the republic.

New conditions, which attend amazing growth and extraordinary industrial development, call for a new and forward-looking program. The American farmer had a hundred and twenty millions to feed in the home market, and heard the cry of the world for food and answered it, though he faced an appalling task amid handicaps never encountered before.

Contemplating the defenselessness of the individual farmer to meet the organized buyers of his products and the distributors of the things the farmer buys, I hold that farmers should not only be permitted but encouraged to join in co-operative association to reap the just measure of reward merited by their arduous toil.

Our platform is an earnest pledge of renewed concern for this most essential and elemental industry and in both appreciation and interest we pledge effective expression in law and practice. We will halt that co-operation which again will make profitable and desirable the ownership and operation of comparatively small farms intensively cultivated, and which will facilitate the caring for the products of farm and orchard without the lamentable waste under present conditions.

America would look with anxiety on the discouragement of farming activity either through the government's neglect or its paralysis by socialist practices. A Republican administration will be committed to renewed regard for agriculture, and seek the participation of farmers in curing the ills justly complained of, and aim to place the American farmer where it ought to be—highly ranked in American activities and fully sharing the highest good fortunes of American life.

Becomingly associated with this subject are the policies of irrigation and reclamation, so essential to agricultural expansion, and the continued development of the great and wonderful West. It is our purpose to continue and enlarge federal aid, not in sectional partiality, but for the good of all America.

I believe the budget system will effect a necessary, helpful reformation and reveal business methods to government business.

I believe federal departments should be made more business-like and send back to productive effort thousands of federal employees, who are either duplicating work or not essential at all.

I believe in the protective tariff policy and know we will be calling for its saving Americanism again.

I believe in a great merchant marine. I would have this republic the leading maritime nation of the world.

I believe in a navy ample to protect it, and able to assure us dependable defense.

I believe in a small army, but the best in the world, with a mindfulness for preparedness which will avoid the unutterable cost of our previous neglect.

I believe in our eminence in trade abroad, which the government should aid in expanding, both in revealing markets and speeding cargoes.

I believe in establishing standards for immigration, which are concerned with the future citizenship of the republic, not with mere man-power in industry.

I believe that every man who, dons the garb of American citizenship and walks in the light of American opportunity, must become American in heart and soul.

I believe in holding fast to every forward step in unshackling child labor

SALIENT POINTS OF SENATOR HARDING'S
 SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

 "I pledge fidelity to our country and to God, and accept the nomination of the Republican party for the presidency of the United States."
 "The human element comes first, and I want the employers in industry to understand the aspirations, the convictions, the yearnings of millions of American wage earners."
 "The Constitution contemplates no class and recognizes no group. It broadly includes all the people, with specific recognition for none."
 "We approve collective bargaining."
 "Gross expansion of currency and credits has depreciated the dollar. We will attempt intelligent and courageous deflation."
 "When competition—natural, fair, impelling competition—is suppressed, whether by law, compact or conspiracy, we halt the march of progress, silence the voice of aspiration and paralyze the will for achievement."
 "I promise you formal and effective peace so quickly as a Republican Congress can pass its declaration for a Republican executive to sign."
 "I can hear the call of conscience an insistent voice for largely reduced armaments throughout the world."
 "Our vision includes more than a chief executive. We believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates, in whose councils the vice-president, second official of the Republic, shall be asked to participate."

bor and elevating conditions of woman's employment.

I believe the federal government should stamp out lynching and remove that stain from the fair name of America.

I believe the federal government should give its effective aid in solving the problem of ample and becoming housing of its citizenship.

I believe this government should make its Liberty and Victory bonds worth all that its patriotic citizens paid in purchasing them.

Taxes Must Be Reduced.

I believe the tax burdens imposed for the war emergency must be revised to the needs of peace, and in the interest of equity in distribution of the burden.

"I believe the negro citizens of America should be guaranteed the enjoyment of all their rights, that they have earned the full measure of citizenship bestowed, that their sacrifices in blood on the battlefields of the republic have entitled them to all of freedom and opportunity, all of sympathy and aid that the American spirit of fairness and justice demands."

I believe there is an easy and open path to righteous relationship with Mexico. It has seemed to me that our undeveloped, uncertain and infirm policy has made us a culpable party to the governmental misfortunes in that land. Our relations ought to be both friendly and sympathetic; we would like to acclaim a stable government there, and offer a neighborly hand in pointing the way to greater progress.

I believe in law enforcement. If elected I mean to be a constitutional president, and it is impossible to ignore the constitution, unthinkable to evade the law, when our every commitment is to orderly government.

The four million defenders on land and sea were worthy of the best traditions of a people never war-like in peace and never pacifist in war. They commanded our pride, they have our gratitude, which must have genuine expression. It is not only a duty, it is a privilege to see that the sacrifices made shall be requited, and that those still suffering from casualties and disabilities shall be abundantly aided and restored to the highest capabilities of citizenship and its enjoyment.

Advocates Woman Suffrage.

The womanhood of America, always its glory, its inspiration and the potent, uplifting force in its social and spiritual development, is about to be enfranchised. In so far as congress can go, the fact is already accomplished. By party edict, by my recorded vote, by personal conviction I am committed to this measure of justice. It is my earnest hope, my sincere desire that the one needed state vote be quickly recorded in the affirmation of the right of equal suffrage and that the vote of every citizen shall be cast and counted in the approaching election.

And to the great number of noble women who have opposed in conviction this tremendous change in the ancient relation of the sexes as applied to government, I venture to plead that they will accept the full responsibility of enlarged citizenship and give to the best in the republic their suffrage and support.

Ours is not only a fortunate people but a very common-sensical people, with vision high but their feet on the earth, with belief in themselves and faith in God. Whether enemies threaten from without or menaces arise from within, there is some indefinable voice saying, "Have confidence in the republic! America will go on!"

CIGARETTES

No sir-ee, bob!

No premiums with Camels—all quality!

CAMELS quality plus Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos pass out the most wonderful cigarette smoke you ever drew into your mouth!

And, the way to prove that statement is to compare Camels puff-by-puff with any cigarette in the world!

Camels have a mild mellowness that is as new to you as it is delightful. Yet, that desirable "body" is all there! They are always refreshing—they never tire your taste.

Camels leave no unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste nor unpleasant cigaretty odor! Your say-so about Camels will be:

"My, but that's a great cigarette".

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

Advertising at $15,000 a Page

Paper famine is forcing newspapers and periodicals all over the country to combine, reduce size, raise advertising subscription rates, or in many cases go out of business altogether. Numerous Sunday papers now sell at 10 cents or more. The Ladies Home Journal sends us its new advertising rate-card and you may be interested to know what that high-toned monthly charges for its advertising space. The rate is $12 a line or $168 an inch. A full page in colors cost $11,000 and if it is the back cover pages it runs up to $15,000. These rates for one insertion The Saturday Evening Post is $10,000 for last cover page. How many pages would you like at these rates?—The Pathfinder.

A Republican newspaper tells us that "on the stump for Harding and Coolidge, Hiram Johnson will be worth hundreds of thousands of votes for the Republican ticket." Convince Hiram of that and he will not take the stump. In 1916 he took to the stump for the Republican ticket, but, while he made votes for himself, he made votes against Hughes. There is only one way for Harding to get the enthusiastic support of Mr. Johnson, and that is by construing the Chicago platform to mean a repudiation of all plans for any League of Nations. The Louisville Post.

Some sort of revolution is always in progress in China, and so long as these disturbances do not penetrate to the seaboard the outside world takes little interest. But a rebellious chieftain has raised an army and penetrated to within fifty miles of Peking. At last accounts he was being held, but the representatives of the allied governments are apprehensive about the fate of the Chinese capital, The Chinese manage to keep at work in the midst of revolutions rather better than do the Russians, and yet China's development is sorely impeded by the revolts of these military dictators.—Louisville Post.

Democratic Ticket

FOR PRESIDENT
JAMES M. COX, of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT
FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, of New York.

FOR UNITED STATES SENATE
J. C. W. BECKHAM.

Just before going to press the news comes, announcing the death of Gen. P. Wat Hardin, which occurred at Richmond, Va., Monday. He will be buried at Frankfort. He was 79 years old and was a native of Columbia and his death brought sorrow to his many admirers of Adair county.

Gov. Cox will be officially notified of his nomination for the Presidency August 7. Mr. Roosevelt will be notified on the 9th of August. The proceedings will take place at their respective home.

Straw votes in the industrial centers of Ohio show an overwhelming majority for Gov.
Cox for the Presidency. The employees of an Akron rubber company show 350 votes for Cox, two for Harding. The canvass of the Glass works of Marion, Ind., show
95 for Cox, 5 for Harding. In a Kenton, Ohio plant 198 votes were cast, 194 for Cox. In a Columbus printing plant there were 82 votes polled, all for Cox.

Mr. Harding has made his speech of acceptance and Gov.
Cox will make his next Saturday.
By the middle of this month the campaign will be on in earnest
Gov. Cox will start in the East and Mr. Roosevelt in the West.

Col. W. J. Bryan was nominated by the National Prohibition Convention for President. He declined to accept and states that he will support Cox and Roosevelt.

Strong Appeal

For

Col. Frank L. Rippy

FOR CONGRESS

Saturday August 7th, will be the primary, and his friends are urged to be at the polls. He can win in November.

To The Democrats of Madison County And Voters of 8th Congressional District.

We, the undersigned soldiers and men who served in the United States Army with Col. Frank L. Rippy, on the Mexican borders and in France, desire to state that Mr. Rippy was our Colonel.

We consider him to be an American of the highest type, a loyal citizen, a great soldier, a sober honorable gentleman, a kind officer one who treated every mother's boy in a kind and fatherly-like manner. He is our friend and your friend, a man of the common people, the kind that has and will always make America safe for Democracy.

We, therefore, believe it to be our duty to recommend Col.
Rippy to the Democratic voters of Madison county and the Eighth Congressional District, and ask them to vote for him for Representative to Congress. We know him to be capable and worthy of the office he seeks.

He resigns his position County Attorney of Anderson county when war was declared and at a time when our Nation was in distress and went to its relief when he did not have to go. He followed the flag with us on the Mexican border, and from the United States to France, and stayed with us until the war is over, and victory declared and we are with him until this election is over, and victory is his.

We believe if he is nominated as our candidate for Congress in the Eighth Congressional District that we will gain an old-fashioned Democratic majority in November, and Democracy will return to her own.

We, therefore, appeal to all the Democrats who want victory in November to go to the polls and vote for Col. Frank L. Rippy, in the Primary August 7., 1920.

TEN years ago you might have seen one or two automobiles waiting outside the station, when the weather was pleasant.

Today the square is crowded with them. And most of the cars you generally see there are moderate-price cars.

Select your tires according to the roads they have to travel:

In sandy or hilly country, wherever the going is apt to be heavy—The U. S. Nobby.

For ordinary country roads—The U. S. Chain or Usco.

For front wheels—The U. S. Plain.

For best results—everywhere—U. S. Royal Cords.

ROYAL CORD—NOBBY—CHAIN—USCO—PLAIN

Anybody who tells you that owners of moderate-price cars are not interested in the quality of their tires has never met very many of them.

We come in contact with the small car owner every day and we have found that he is just as much interested as the big car owner.

There is one tire, at least, that makes no distinction between small cars and large cars so far as quality is concerned—the U. S. Tire.

Every U. S. Tire is just like every other in quality—the best its builders know how to build.

Whatever the size of your car, the service you get out of U. S. Tires is the same. It isn't the car, but the man who owns the car, that sets the standard to which U. S. tires are made.

We feel the same way about it. That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

STOMACH TROUBLE

Mr. Marion Holcomb, of Nancy, Ky., says: "For quite a long while I suffered with stomach trouble. I would have pains and a heavy feeling after my meals, a most disagreeable taste in my mouth. If I ate anything with butter, oil or grease, I would spit it up. I began to have regular sick headache. I had used pills and tablets, but after a course of these, I would be constipated. It just seemed to tear my stomach all up. I found they were no good at all for my trouble. I heard recommended very highly, so began to use it. It cured me. I keep it in the house all the time. It is the best liver medicine made. I do not have sick headache or stomach trouble any more." Black-Draught acts on the jaded liver and helps it to do its important work of throwing out waste materials and poisons from the system. This medicine should be in every household for use in time of need. Get a package today. If you feel sluggish, take a dose tonight. You will feel fresh tomorrow. Price 25c a package. All druggists.

THE DRAUGHT'S

Ride on Goodyear Tires in That Sturdy Small Car of Yours

It surprises certain users of small cars to find that they can obtain Goodyear Tires at a first cost ordinarily not greater, and sometimes less, than that of other tires.

This initial value, as well as the very low final cost, results from the application of Goodyear experience and care to their manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to 30x3-, 30 x 3 1/2- and 31 x 4-inch sizes.

Such facts explain why more cars, using these sizes, were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

If you drive a Ford, Chevrolet, Maxwell, or Dort take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy real Goodyear value and economy; equip your car with Goodyear Tires and Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Service Station.

30x3 1/2 Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread . . . $23.50
30x3 1/2 Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread . . . $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? $4.50
30x3 1/2 size in waterproof bag—

GOOD YEAR

Faith or Facts?

Do you guess at the quality or blindly believe in the worth of the tires you buy for your car?

Or do you know that you have the best and why it is the best?

Let us tell you just why Goodyear Clincher tires in sizes 30x3, 30x3 1-2 or 31x4 are best for you.

A Visit To The Southland.

Dear Ed:

Thought I'd drop you a few lines and give a brief description of my trip to Mississippi.

Boarded the train at Campbellsville, July seventh, arrived in West Point July eighth, at 3:30 P.M., and soon found our old friend and editor, Mr. C. S. Harris, who gave us a hearty welcome, and carried us to his home, where we met his most estimable family and was most happily entertained by them.

Brother Harris and one of his sons soon took us for a trip out in the country and believe me there sure was some fine land to look at, and still better the price was reasonable, in fact more than reasonable, when we consider the productiveness and lay of the land, the mild, short winters and long summers, and yet strange to say, it did not seem warmer than it is here for they have a fine breeze most all the time which makes a fellow feel real fresh and then as fine water as one could ask for, also meeting Mr. R. K. Young who took us out in his car, Mr. Harris with us too, making a run up to Aberdeen, and paying Mr. Murrell and family a short visit, going back to West Point, we went down as far as Macon, accompanied by Mr. Young, went out to the farm owned by him and Mr. Gill. Mr. Gill's son met us at Macon with his car, so we formed the acquaintance of Mr. Gill's kind and friendly family, who lodged and cared for us very entertainingly. This farm has 1128 acres in it, 212 head of cattle on it, and meadow enough to almost make a fellow rich, but Mr. Gill and boys with some help, was showing their grit by going right after it. We learned while there that the average meadow was cut four times and yielded from three fourths of a ton to two tons of fine hay per acre, also having a higher feeding value than timothy hay. I can't see why a man can't make a living down there pretty easy. But he don't have to depend on grass and hay alone, one can raise most any thing that he may want to. While I was down there I saw a lot of very fine land, and better yet, taking the people as a whole I think them the best people I ever met. Also went to church twice and will say that there is plenty of nice churches, schools and good roads. Taking them all into consideration it is useless to say that the people all seemed contented and happy, some seemed to be intused inasmuch that I heard language like this: "When General Pershing returned to America after being victorious over the German army that the people met him tooting horns, hallooing, throwing up hats and waving handkerchiefs, but when he returned to Columbia that the people commemorated by going right to killing chickens. Say excuse me I was about to forget to tell you that we stopped some with Mr. Young too, and partook of his kind hospitalities, also invited a Mr. Traylor and Mr. Workman both from this county and they all seemed to be doing well. I could go on and on writing about the good features of the country and the kind people but I started out to be brief and must hurry to a conclusion but you can guess what I think of the country and where my next vacation will be spent, as those people welcome us Corncrackers.

So on July 15th at about 4:50 P. M. we boarded the train at West Point for Campbellsville arriving there on the noon train next day, reaching home that night, but was not met by tooting horns or chicken suppers either, but was welcomed.

HARDING SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE A NEW KEYNOTE

Republican Nominee at Notification Ceremonies Discusses Problems Confronting Nation.

"HOLD HERITAGE AMERICAN NATIONALITY UNIMPAIRED"

Advocates Party Responsibility as Distinguished From Dictatorial and Autocratic Personal Rule—In Referring to League of Nations, Says We Do Not Mean to Shun a Single Responsibility of This Republic to World Civilization—Favors Protective Tariff, Merchant Marine, a Small Army, Woman Suffrage and National Budget.

Marion, O.—(Special.)—Warren G. Harding was officially notified here of his nomination as the Republican candidate for the presidency. His speech of acceptance is, in part, as follows: Chairman Lodge, members of Notification Committee, ladies and gentlemen: The message which you have formally conveyed brings to me a realization of responsibility which is not underestimated. It is a supreme task to interpret the covenant of a great political party, the activities of which are woven into the history of this republic, and a very sacred and solemn undertaking to utter the faith and aspirations of the many millions who adhere to that party. The party platform has charted the way, yet, somehow, we have come to expect that interpretation which voices the faith of nominees who must assume specific tasks.

Let me be understood clearly from the very beginning. I believe in party sponsorship in government. I believe

In party government as distinguished from personal government, individual dictatorial, autocratic or what not.

No man is big enough to run this great republic. There never has been one. Such domination was never intended. Tranquility, stability, dependability—all are assured in party sponsorship, and we mean to renew the assurances which were rendered in the cataclysmal war.

Our first commitment is the restoration of representative popular government, under the constitution, through the agency of the Republican party. Our vision includes more than a chief executive, we believe in a cabinet of highest capacity, equal to the responsibilities which our system contemplates. In whose councils the vice president, second official of the republic, shall be asked to participate. The same vision includes a cordial understanding and co-ordinated action with a house of Congress, fresh from the people, voicing the convictions which members bring from direct contact with the electorate, and cordial co-operation along with the restored functions of the senate, fit to be the greatest deliberative body of the world.

International Relationship. It is not difficult, Chairman Lodge, to make ourselves clear on the question of international relationship. We Republicans of the senate, conscious of our constitutional obligations, when we saw the structure of a world super-government taking visionary form, joined in a becoming warning of our devotion to this republic. If the torch of constitutionalism had not been dimmed, the delayed peace of the world and the tragedy of disappointment and Europe's misunderstanding of America easily might have been avoided. The Republicans of the senate halted the barter of independent American eminence and influence, which it was proposed to exchange for an obscure and unequal place in the merged government of the world. Our party means to hold the heritage of American nationality unimpaired and unsundered.

The world will not misconstrue. We do not mean to hold aloof. We do not mean to shun a single responsibility of this republic to world civilization. There is no hate in the American heart. We have no envy, no suspicion, no aversion for any people in the world. We hold to our rights, and

VOTE FOR

Ralph Gilbert
CONGRESS

In the Democratic Primary August
7, 1920

We Will Redeem the District in November and Serve You Honestly and Faithfully.

Congress is the Key to Dry Enforcement

A wet Congress can effectively cripple and practically annul the enforcement of the National Prohibition Amendment by cutting down the appropriation to meet the necessary expenses of law enforcement, or it can amend the Volstead Act to permit the sale of light wines and beer. Federal Commissioner of Prohibition Kramer says: "We might as well give up the whole thing and let it go by the board if we are to permit the sales of wines and beer. Soft drink establishments are troublesome enough today, but change them to wine and beer saloons and no power on earth could enforce the law or limit the amount of alcohol in the drinks sold.

If there ever was a time in the History of Temperance reform in America when your vote and influence count one hundred per cent. That time is now.

A Vote for Gilbert is a Vote for a Dry Congress

Gilbert is a lawyer of marked ability and has owned and operated a farm for 15 years. He is fearless in his stand for the Dry Cause and the principles of Democracy. His record in public as well as private life will bear the closest scrutiny. He does not conceal his views or hide his opinions and you know where HE STANDS on every public question. Since Governor Cox has stated that the liquor question is not a Presidential issue, but must be settled in the Congressional elections. Gilbert is more than ever the strongest man for the Democrats to nominate and put against King Swope, the Republican candidate, in November. Go to the polls on August 7th and cast your vote for Gilbert and you will vote for your next Congressman.

Remember that the Primary will be Saturday August 7th.
